Nurse's Notes

May is Stroke Awareness Month. There is an acronym for stroke that could save someone's life or prevent brain damage. Acting FAST-

F - Face Does someone's face droop on one side when they smile.

A - Arm If you ask someone to raise their arms and one drifts down.

S - Speech Does someone's speech sound strange or slurred.

T - Time If any of these are occurring call 911 for assistance immediately.

Quick treatment can save lives but stroke prevention is important. Try and maintain a healthy weight. Include physical activity in your plan. Set a goal for 30 minutes 5 days a week. Don't smoke and avoid alcohol. High cholesterol and high blood pressure increases your risk of stroke. Be sure and discuss any concerns with your healthcare provider. Marianne Hickey RN

Ms. R's Counseling Corner :)

Hi families! I can't believe we are officially one week away from the last day of school! What a blessing this year has been and I've loved getting to know all of the students this year. We have learned so much about growth mindset, goal setting, kindness, conflict resolution, and so much more this year! If you haven't already, please follow Ms. R's Bosco Counseling Corner on Facebook for updates this summer! I will do my best to throw in some fun activities, quotes, articles, and maybe some live streams to say hi to the kiddos! It will be fun to stay in contact with the students during our break :)

Have a wonderful summer everyone! Enjoy some relaxation and family time!

Middle School Concert Songs

Have you ever had an idea, but then realized it didn't work out the way you thought it would? On Wednesday, April 21, I had this exact thought with my middle schoolers. After working hard to find music for our concert, arranging it for them, and practicing it for weeks, there were still a few things I wished would have done differently. We could have spent some more time getting used to the different speaker situation in the high school gym, along with having some additional practice performing in front of an audience. However, since we weren't having another concert, Mrs. Douglas and I decided to record our concert songs in class instead! I'm hoping this will provide a better picture of how we were used to performing our songs before our concert!

I'm so proud of all the awesome work these students have been doing all semester! Check out our videos below! -Mr. Bergan
